Ann Landers
you on the street and has a coronary.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 16 years old, but today I feel like 90. It's too late for advice, but maybe my experience will prevent some other girl from making the same mistake.

I live in a city where there is a state university. Any high school sophomore who can get a date from a guy at the university is considered pretty special. I was thrilled when a 21-year-old junior asked me out. He was handsome and on the football team besides. My success really went to my head.

I figured that since this guy was older than hand-holding in the movies and a goodnight kiss at the door would be kid stuff to him so I decided I'd do anything and everything to keep him interested. Believe me this was the biggest mistake of my life.

After he got what he wanted he dropped me like a hot coal. Now I feel like a cheap tramp. Just tell the girls for me, Ann, that once you become a conquest instead of a challenge the boy loses interest. — DUMB ME

Dear You: I'll agree you were pretty dumb but your letter indicates you've smartened up considerably. Thanks for writing and I hope you
